

Tendr Bill — Privacy Policy

Last Updated: January 5th, 2026

Overview

Tendr Bill respects the privacy of its users and is committed to protecting personal information. Tendr Bill does not store payment card numbers, bank account numbers, or routing numbers. This Privacy Policy explains what information may be collected, how it is used, and how it is protected.

Information Collected

Tendr Bill collects only the information necessary to operate and provide its services. This may include:

- Account and contact information provided by users
- Transaction and payment status information
- Limited operational and security logs required to maintain reliability and prevent abuse

How Information Is Used

Information is used solely to:

- Provide and operate the Tendr Bill service
- Process and track authorized payments
- Maintain system security, reliability, and performance
- Comply with applicable legal obligations

Data Sharing and Third Parties

Tendr Bill does not sell, rent, trade, or use customer data for advertising or marketing by third parties, and information is shared only when strictly necessary to provide core service functionality, such as payment authorization or processing, or when required by law. Service providers performing these functions are expected to maintain appropriate security and confidentiality protections.

Security

Tendr Bill implements reasonable administrative, technical, and operational safeguards designed to protect information from unauthorized access, disclosure, or misuse.
